Scranton Moves To Halt Goldwater 'Steamroller'

Tiny Store Sits Tight In 25-Story Building Site

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP)—O. T. Norton, owner of a tiny wood and canvas grocery store, says he has 15 months to go on his lease and he won't move to make way for a 25-story building.

Constructors said Tuesday that was all right, they would just build around him. The store will be in the center of the new structure's plaza.

Goldwater Not Worried About GOP Platform

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater isn't worried about the Republican party platform, his campaign director said today.

Denison Kitchel said in an interview he doesn't think the forces opposing the senator in his front-running bid for the GOP presidential nomination have enough delegate strength to win adoption of platform planks aimed at embarrassing the Arizona.

Goldwater takes his conservative case to the resolutions committee Friday morning. He will fly to San Francisco Thursday.

Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton has demanded platform planks repudiating "extremist groups of both the left and the right" with a specific condemnation of the John Birch Society; and declaring the constitutionality of the new Civil Rights Act.

New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller seconded those proposals before the committee in San Francisco Tuesday but stopped short of calling for specific condemnation of the Birch Society, which describes itself as an "educational army—dedicated to opposing the Communist conspiracy."

Goldwater has said he disagrees with the leaders of the Birch Society, but declared in San Francisco March 15: "I will take the support of any American who is not a Communist."

He voted against the civil rights bill on grounds two sections were unconstitutional.

Kitchel said a plank affirming constitutionality of the new law would be ridiculous because that is a judicial question, not a political one.

He said the suggestion that extremist groups be denounced would turn the platform into a long list of organizations.

Big Cow Palace Converted Into Political Arena

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Cow Palace is no place today for cows. Or people.

Work is moving along briskly and noisily to transform the big exhibition hall and home of a professional ice hockey team into the arena for selecting the 1964 Republican ticket. The convention opens Monday.

Flags of the states have been draped on both sides. A new electronic score board has been installed to flash a running total of the vote for the presidential nomination. Most of the delegation phones are in.

The major business of erecting the platform area, however, is only half completed. Workmen are still erecting partitions off the floor for various activities.

Members of the convention arrangements committee made their way through the lumber and wires Tuesday to assess the progress.

Views Varied

"It's working out very well," said Clare Shank of St. Petersburg, Fla., a GOP national committeewoman and a former assistant national chairman.

Mrs. Shank said she was delighted that so little room for the 1,308 delegates had been sacrificed in enlarging the platform space allowed for the 1956 Republican convention in the same hall.

Back at the headquarters hotel, there were happy tidings for people who'd like to attend the "GOP Party Gala" convention eve but don't have $500 in cash for a ticket.

Just charge it, the sponsors said.

More specifically, the national Republican senatorial and congressional committees announced they'll accept credit cards for the foremost social event of the convention.

Drinks And Dancing

What will the guests get for their $500?

—An engraved ticket, the size of a calling card, engraved in silver and blue, and packaged in a dark blue leather jewelry box. The box also will contain a tiny silver pin in the shape of the Capitol dome.

—A chance to get a close look at all party presidential possibilities and dignitaries and to mix with what advance publicity bills as numerous movie and television personalities.

—An elaborate buffet and drinks, dancing to two orchestras and banjo entertainment.

Proceeds will help finance election expenses for Republican candidates for the Senate and House in the fall campaigns.

Governor Says Rival Is Using Smear Tactics

CHICAGO (AP)—Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton heads for San Francisco today to try to upset what he termed the "political steamroller" of Sen. Barry Goldwater at the Republican National Convention.

Scranton has challenged the front-running Arizona senator for the GOP nomination. Tuesday night in a nationally televised political program on NBC the governor accused Goldwater managers of "smears" and "every conceivable kind of pressure and threat" to keep the nomination from Scranton. The convention opens Monday.

Said Scranton:

"They (the Goldwater managers) are trying to create a political steamroller unparalleled for its toughness, its callousness, its total disregard for the opinion of rank-and-file Republicans."

Pamphlet Circulated

The governor declared that "every survey taken shows that I'm leading him in the number of rank-and-file Republicans—Republican voters that is—who would prefer that I be the candidate."

Scranton said the Goldwater forces are circulating a pamphlet "that questions my patriotism." The pamphlet, said the governor, is produced by "extremists" who urge that the GOP convention be deluged with them.

Scranton contended "we cannot afford a moratorium (in foreign) policy during the months of this presidential campaign."

He proposed that a comprehensive policy be formed for Southeast Asia to replace what he described as a country-by-country piecemeal policy.

Insult To Delegates

One line of the pamphlet was quoted by Scranton as saying the governor has "a record of actions which prove his softness on communism."

"The American people will revolt against this kind of smear campaign," said Scranton, "and I think the Goldwater managers are insulting the common sense of the delegates to ask them to believe it in San Francisco."

"CAN'T WIN" QUOTED

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Gov. William W. Scranton's backers hammered at Sen. Barry Goldwater's towering claim on the GOP presidential nomination with a can't-win assault today, as prospects for a civil rights fight dwindled.

Goldwater's declaration in an interview published in a German news magazine that "as of now" no Republican could defeat President Johnson was described by Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., as an admission that the Arizona senator is resigned to losing in November if he becomes the GOP presidential nominee at next week's convention.

Scott, campaign director for the Pennsylvania governor, told a news conference Tuesday that "I'm afraid they (the Goldwater backers) don't really believe they can win."

"You can't give up before the campaign starts," Scott said. "Governor Scranton believes that he can beat President Johnson. He has won before against odds and he'll win again."

Goldwater said in the interview that, as of today, no other Republican had a chance of defeating Johnson in the South. He added that while he wasn't saying that he could do so at the moment, "come election day there is going to be another horse race." He made it clear in this respect that he was speaking not only of the South but the nation at large.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate Interior subcommittee will hold a hearing July 20 at Escanaba, Mich., on a bill to create a Pictured Rocks national recreation area in Michigan's Upper Peninsula, Sen. Phillip A. Hart, D-Mich., said Tuesday.

Hart is expected to testify at the hearing on the bill sponsored by himself and Sen. Pat McNamara, D-Mich. The subcommittee will be headed by Sen. Gaylord Nelson, D-Wis.

The proposed recreation area would include 65,611 acres in a narrow belt along the south shore of Lake Superior between Munising and Grand Marais, Mich.

The proposal has been endorsed by the National Park Service. The federal government would buy a 28,438 acre inner belt along the shore for park and recreation purposes. The outer 37,173 acre zone would remain in private hands for use in timber production.

Livonia Flier And Sweetheart Found Murdered

OCEAN SPRINGS, Miss. (AP)—A Livonia flier and his teen-aged Mississippi sweetheart were found murdered near this Gulf Coast town early Tuesday.

Police said Joseph L. Zahra, 21, who was stationed at Keesler Air Force Base at nearby Biloxi, was shot in the head and Miss Darnell F. Eleuterius, 18, of Biloxi, apparently was beaten to death.

The bodies were in a car in a roadside park. The girl's blouse was torn. Roy Toole, acting Ocean Springs police chief, said the bodies were discovered when police made a routine check of the car.

Zahra's mother said the two had planned to announce their engagement soon.

Romney, Lodge Star Witnesses In GOP Hearing

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two prominent Republicans who once figured in speculation for the 1964 presidential nomination tell platform writers today what pledges they think the party should make in the coming campaign.

Henry Cabot Lodge and Gov. George Romney, who say they are not available for the nomination, were the scheduled star witnesses as the GOP platform committee reached mid-point in its pre-convention week of hearings. Thursday and Friday the committee will hear from other prominent Republicans who once figured in speculation for the 1964 presidential nomination.

Lodge's appearance underlined foreign policy in the platform debate after two days of emphasis on civil rights left that issue still unresolved.

The 1960 Republican vice presidential nominee and ambassador to the United Nations during the Eisenhower administration, Lodge resigned as ambassador to South Viet Nam last month after nearly a year in the job under the Johnson-Kennedy administrations. He said he was returning to push Scranton for president.

So far foreign policy has not been the bone of much contention among the string of GOP platform witnesses. In general, the Republican speakers have attacked what they label as President Johnson's vacillation and expediency in handling foreign affairs.

Lodge, however, has maintained that the campaign against Red guerrillas in South Viet Nam is on the right track and can be won if the Washington and Saigon governments keep it.

The parents of America's only quintuplets are expecting another child, reportedly around the time of the quint's first birthday, Sept. 14.

Mrs. Fischer told the Aberdeen American-News she would make no formal announcement of the long-rumored pregnancy. "Everyone knows it anyway."

The quint—four girls and a boy—were born nearly 10 months ago. The Fischers have five other children.

They live in a rented home in Aberdeen while their new farm dwelling is under construction. Fischer expects to enter the cattle business on their 800-acre tract but is still working at a wholesale grocery firm.

Hiccups Siege Runs For Year

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Today is a happy anniversary for Lucy McDonald. It is the anniversary of her bout with the hiccups.

The 38-year-old red-haired mother of three says she couldn't be happier. The hiccups stopped about a week ago.

Mrs. McDonald received thousands of letters, telegrams and telephone calls after an Associated Press story described her plight. Most suggested home remedies for curing the hiccups.

The remedy which apparently cured her came from a druggist for whom she now works. The pharmacist, Roy Faith, said: "I just gave her a drug which is commonly used. I cannot say what it was because I am not a physician and I cannot prescribe. The important thing is that she is cured."

Whether the hiccups have gone for good is a question, but Mrs. McDonald says this is the longest period of time she has been able to breathe with ease in a year.

"You can't imagine how thankful I am," she said. "It is such a little thing to be able to breathe without hiccuping. This was the worst year of my life."

Mrs. McDonald was a waitress until she lost her job because of hiccups constantly. She tried several other jobs. Each time she was discharged because of the hiccups.

She now works behind the soda fountain in the drug store.

Union And AMC Talk Contract

DETROIT (AP)—A United Auto Workers bargaining team headed by Union President Walter P. Reuther opened contract talks today with American Motors Corp. — the firm which provided a dramatic breakthrough in 1961 negotiations.

Talks with the big three car-makers — Ford Motor Co., General Motors Corp. and Chrysler Corp.—began last week. AMC is the smallest of the major car producers.

Company spokesmen would give no advance hints of the position AMC Vice President Edward L. Cushman will take in today's opening round. Last time around, Cushman and Michigan's Republican Gov. George W. Romney, then president of the company, authored the auto industry's first profit-sharing plan.

Under the profit sharing arrangement, a percentage of AMC's pre-tax adjusted earnings is put into a fund. Some of the money is used to finance insurance and pension improvements and some phases of supplemental unemployment benefits.

Some of the fund is used to purchase company stock, which is distributed to workers on a formula based on years of service. The stock has to be held for three years, except in cases of personal emergency.

Some AMC workers have indicated they would rather have cash. This may be discussed at the bargaining table.

Drifting Cruiser Skipped By Dog

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Three Coast Guardmen wrestled command of a drifting cabin cruiser from a protesting dog Tuesday.

Police said the dog's owner, Don R. Hammit, had gone ashore and forgot to tie up the boat, which drifted into San Francisco Bay. Hammit and the dog, Keoki, were pinched.

Hammit, charged with drunkenness and mischief, went free on $68 bail. The erstwhile canine skipper was sprung for $3.50, the standard fee for impounded animals.

Allison Green Hopes To Team Up With Romney

KINGSTON (AP)—Allison Green, Kingston Republican who spearheaded Gov. George W. Romney's legislative programs as speaker of the Michigan House, announced candidacy today for Republican nomination as lieutenant governor.

Green, 53, opposes Sen. William Milliken, R-Traverse City, who announced candidacy earlier. Republicans will choose the lieutenant governor nominee at the party's state convention this September.

"In order to assure a broad Republican victory," Green said today, "we need, above all, well qualified and experienced candidates at the top of our ticket. We need leadership that can work well both with the legislature and the governor."

Asked if Romney endorsed his candidacy, Green replied: "The governor is aware of my intentions."

At a recent testimonial for Green, Romney said of the House leader:

"I have depended heavily on Al's leadership in the House to carry through those programs which we both believe are vital to the future of Michigan."

Green was elected to the legislature in 1950 and for each succeeding term. He was elected speaker in 1963.

Old Resident Dies At 101

Andrew Johnson, 101, one of Delta County's oldest residents died Tuesday at 12:40 p. m. at the Delta Nursing Home. He had resided at the home for the past 15 years.

Mr. Johnson was born in Sweden on May 18, 1863 and did woodwork and was employed by the Nahma Lumber Co. and the E&LS Railroad. His two brothers, C. P. Johnson and Victor Johnson, preceded him in death. He is survived by several nieces and nephews.

Friends may call at the Anderson Funeral Home from 4 to 9:30 p. m. today. Complete funeral services will be held at the funeral home at 3:30 p. m. Thursday with Rev. Walden Nelson of Bethany Lutheran Church officiating. Burial will be in Lakeview Cemetery.

Aging Capitol In Lansing Gets $200,000 Cleanup

LANSING (AP)—The venerable old state capitol in Lansing is going to be cleaned up with a scraping off of some 80 years of encrusted dirt and grime.

A lot of people don't like the idea.

It is almost as controversial as asking: "Would you like to have your wife get her face lifted?"

Like it or not, the State Administrative Board Tuesday approved a work order authorizing spending of $200,000 for cleaning, repairing and sealing the stone facing on the building.

Bids now are being asked for the clean-up job of the grimy old building, dedicated in 1879, and made of soft Ohio sandstone.

Views on the cleanup proposal have ranged from one extreme to another.

"I like Lansing very much but there is one thing wrong with it. The capitol building where you work is dirty."

The Cranbrook Academy of Art, in Bloomfield Hills, was against cleaning, advising:

"Aging is a basic trend in nature and it mellows the architecture. The old monuments of Italy, for example, are never cleaned and that's what brings a venerable aging spirit to them. Please let your venerable state capitol remain as it is."

City officials in Paris have had a different idea, working now on cleaning up their many historic buildings and monuments.

Gov. George W. Romney put the item for a cleaning-up of the capitol in his budget. It was approved by the Legislature, enabling the bids this year.

One legislator in the sand-blasting business—Rep. Richard A. H. J. Guzowski, D-Detroit—suggested nearly two years ago that he be allowed to clean the building, for free, if necessary.

The proposal was discouraged by fellow-lawmakers who felt it wouldn't be proper for him to do the job, however.

John Gafner, state property manager, meanwhile, has to decide on the best cleaning process.

Just outside his office, in the lower capitol floor, are various sections of stone where different cleaning processes have been demonstrated.

Gafner said a new steam-chemical process was ahead right now in rate of performance.

Gafner said he has numerous queries on why the state capitol dome looks so strikingly white, especially at night with floodlights on it, and the rest of the building seems so grimy.

Grayling Fire Hazard Eased

CAMP GRAYLING (AP)—Overnight rain brought a break in fire hazards which have plagued Michigan National Guard troops in the early days of the 46th Infantry Division's annual summer encampment.

Some 1,500 guardsmen went into the third day of special tank attack training exercises today. An additional 5,500 guardsmen are scheduled to arrive Saturday for two weeks of regular training.

Hot, dry weather before Tuesday's rain had increased fears among guard leaders and conservation workers for a heavy incidence of brush and grass fires during range practice.

Several units including troops from Alpena, Bay City, Cadillac and Manistee, were scheduled to fire on the range today.

Maj. Gen. Lloyd Moses, deputy commanding general of the 5th Army, was scheduled to inspect Camp Grayling today. Gen. Moses is the first of a number of National Guard and Army officers expected to inspect Michigan guardsmen during the two week encampment.

Candy Customers Won't Be Rushed

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—After a show of force, a dozen kids have converted a candy store owner to their way of thinking.

Their way of thinking is that when you are at a candy counter trying to make up your mind you don't like to be rushed.

They considered that Mrs. Antoinette Mufarreh was rushing them in her Noe Hill market at 4001 Noe St. So they marched on the market and protested.

Mrs. Mufarreh agreed they should not be rushed at such a critical time. She went further. Would they like to come to her house for some free candy?

They would. And afterward: "She's a very nice lady," said Kevin Fregosi, 4, savoring a mint.

Air Guardsmen Help To Curtail Traffic Killings

LANSING (AP)—The Michigan National Guard headquarters in Lansing reports its airmen were on duty and trying hard to curtail the 39-death slaughter on state highways over the Fourth of July weekend.

The guard furnished nine conventional aircraft and four helicopters to aid police, and in addition put more than 100 men into road patrols.

Rail And Ferry Cuts Opposed

CHEBOYGAN (AP) — Petitions by three transportation firms to abandon rail freight and ferry service for much of northern Michigan meet heavy public opposition here today at an Interstate Commerce Commission hearing.

Promising "several surprises" if the hearing proceeds to a conclusion, Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley led the protests in person with an opening statement on behalf of the state.

Hyman J. Blond presides as ICC examiner for the hearings which are scheduled to continue through July 17.

Petitioners are Mackinac Transportation Co., operators of the railroad car ferry Chief Wawatam at the Straits of Mackinac, and the Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads. The PRR, NYC and Soo Line are joint owners of the MTC.

Another petitioner, Detroit & Mackinac Railroad, withdrew last week from a plea to abandon 43 miles of track between Posen and Cheboygan, claiming it would ride along with the area's potential growth.

Kelley has saluted its "public spirited" attitude and asked the others to follow suit.

He called upon them to meet with him and discuss a possible "amicable settlement" but was answered by PRR counsel Robert H. Bierma the meeting could not take place before July 13.

The car ferry firm claims it is losing money on runs across the straits and seeks to discontinue the service. The railroads claim they would suffer financial loss if their straits link is broken and thus ask to abandon some 300 miles of track leading to the ferry.

Kelley, acting for the Michigan Public Service Commission and the Committee for Retention of Rail and Ferry Service, obtained a U. S. District Court injunction forcing the ferry to operate until the ICC decides on the petitions.

The injunction was sought on grounds that loss of the ferry and rail freight service would cause "irreparable damage" to the state, numerous shippers and consignees and railroad employees.

BENNETT PROTESTS

WASHINGTON (AP)—A plan to end railroad service between Michigan's two peninsulas was protested today by Rep. John Bennett, R-Mich.

The Mackinac Transportation

Co. has petitioned the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to abandon its railroad car ferry, Chief Wawatam, across the Straits of Mackinac.

Three railroads are seeking authority to stop hauling freight on 343 miles of northern Michigan track if the car ferry is abandoned.

Bennett voiced his protest in a telegram to Hyman Blond, an ICC examiner, who opens a hearing today in Cheboygan, Mich., on the abandonment plan.

"It seems needless to point out the almost certain and extensive damage to the present economy of the area and its ability to expand and prosper in the future that must result from a complete termination of rail service to the area and at the same time breaking the link between the Upper and Lower Peninsulas," Bennett said in his telegram.

As senior Republican on the House Commerce Committee, Bennett said he is aware of the adverse economic effect of further curtailment in rail transportation, particularly in areas such as northern Michigan.

Garbage Truck Is Damaged By Fire

Fire in the rear of a city garbage truck caused extensive damage Monday afternoon and brought a warning from Kenneth Tushak, public works superintendent, to those who place live coals in garbage containers.

Tushak said he believes the fire was started by coals from a barbecue stove or from an outside burner dumped into the garbage. These smoldering coals ignited in the truck to cause a fire that extensively damaged the garbage truck.

The power cylinders and wiring in the truck were so badly damaged the truck will have to be sent to the factory in Oshkosh for repair. The loss is covered by insurance.

Osborn Of Soo Reappointed On Bridge Authority

LANSING (AP) — The office of Gov. George W. Romney Monday announced the reappointment of George A. Osborn of Sault Ste. Marie to the Mackinac Bridge Authority.

Osborn, editor and publisher of the Sault Ste. Marie Evening News, was one of the original members of the authority. He was first appointed in 1950.

His new six-year term expires June 30, 1970. Senate confirmation is required.

Organize Here For Clevenger

Announcement of officers and members of the Delta County Clevenger for Congress Committee was made last evening following a meeting with Ray Clevenger, candidate for Congress in the new 11th District.

The committee plans to establish Clevenger committees in each township and precinct of the county.

Clevenger, the former State Corporation and Securities Commissioner, told the group that his experience in Lansing taught him that prosperity and growth come only to those areas having dedicated and well-organized people interested in the welfare of their community.

"We've got to work together to solve the problems of this district, and we in this district have to make sure our particular problems will be known and solved," Clevenger said.

"Here we are in an area that has been hit hard by industry leaving, so that our unemployment rate is almost three times the average for the state. Yet, when the President announces the funds to be available for Michigan in his War on Poverty, other areas of the state are ready with programs coordinated with the President's but we have no one speaking for us. This is what our campaign must do, and the only way of doing this is through active local committees in each part of this District," Clevenger said.

Officers and members of the committee are: chairman, Mrs. Elvora S. Vader; vice chairman, Richard Peterson, Kipling; secretary, Robert Ferguson; telephone, Adele Hessel; scheduling, Edwin Kositzke. Unassigned members are Ambrose Pepin, Ray Long, Raymond Robitaille of Escanaba; Nick Brayak and Fred Myrsten of Bark River and Chester Swanson, Gladstone.

Marquette Gets Psychiatric Unit

MARQUETTE — Ground was broken here Monday for the first privately operated psychiatric facility in the Upper Peninsula.

Brief ceremonies at St. Mary's Hospital commemorated the start of construction of the 16 patient wing that was made possible by public contributions totaling $145,000. Federal funds in the amount of $170,000 will be used on the project along with more than $25,000 contributed by the Sisters of the Third Order of St. Francis.

The unit will be a one-story in-patient section adjacent to the hospital. It will contain 16 rooms for patients, a large lounge, dining area, kitchen, occupational therapy room, large game room, two rooms for "disturbed" patients, terrace, sunken garden, doctor's consultation room and examination and treatment rooms. Caspian Construction Co. of Caspian has the general construction contract.

Stolen Prison Melon Replaced

ST. CLOUD, Minn. (AP) — State reformatory officials say a middle-aged man walked into the prison July 4th with a big watermelon under his arm.

The man said his conscience had bothered him since 1947 when he stole a melon from the prison farm. Supt. Jack Young told the man to give the melon to a needy family.

Cusino Escapees Still At Large

A former Escanaba man and two Lower Michigan men who escaped from Camp Cusino prison camp Monday night, are still at large and believed to be in the Escanaba area or lower portions of the Upper Peninsula said State Police of the Gladstone Post.

The three are Gene LaCosse, 29, a former Escanaba resident who was serving a one and a half to two year term for issuing bogus checks. He is described as a white male, five feet seven inches tall, brown hair, blue eyes and weighing 150 pounds.

Sidney Clark, 23, a male Negro from Grand Rapids is five feet seven inches tall, weighs 155 pounds. He was serving a two and a half to 15 year sentence for breaking and entering in the nighttime.

The third man is Harold May, 32, from Flint, also a male Negro standing five feet ten inches tall, weighing 135 pounds and has maroon eyes.

When last seen the men were wearing brown prison denim.

Gladstone State Police stated today that there is a $50 reward for each of these men offered by the State of Michigan, or for information leading to their recapture.

Anyone seeing the men or having any information of their whereabouts is asked to call the nearest State Police post or any law enforcement office.

Blind Invalid Found With 3 Slaying Victims

COLDWATER (AP)—A blind, invalid woman was hospitalized today after being taken from a house where, authorities said, she spent six days with the bodies of her uncle, his wife and sister-in-law — Victims of a double murder-suicide.

Branch County sheriff's deputies said Mary A. Horr was suffering from malnutrition when she was found Tuesday.

The body of her uncle, Abraham Dodson, 72, was found on the back porch of his farmhouse just north of here. He had been shot in the head, deputies said. A 12-gauge shotgun and a long-handled, double-edged ax lay beside the body.

In upstairs bedrooms, deputies found the bodies of Dodson's wife, Margaret, 72, and his sister-in-law, Helen Ross, 58, of Warren. Mrs. Dodson had been shot in the shoulder, according to morticians at the funeral home where the body was taken.

They said Mrs. Ross' body bore no apparent evidence of gunshot wounds, but had been cut and slashed.

Branch County Coroner Van Rogers said the three died late last Thursday. He theorized Dodson killed the two women, then went onto the porch and shot himself.

Hermansville Celebration Is 'Best In Years'

HERMANVILLE — The annual July 3-4 celebration in the village was termed the most successful in many years by the officials of the Legion and Sportsman's Club.

The homecoming dance at Camp Seven Legion club rooms was a huge success and drew overflow crowd.

The parade on July 4th was the best in many years with first prize going to Junior Bouty, $35, for his float "PT-109"; second prize for "Dr. Ben Crazy", to Roger Whitens and Bob Menard, $25; third prize of $10 to a young group of girls for "Beatettes." The children enjoyed the races and games.

A number of former residents returned home for the celebration and the crowd for the affair was the largest in many years. Proceeds of the celebration will be used by the Legion and Sportsman's Club for their many civic projects.

Beach Popular

The recent warm weather taxed the Hermansville Beach to capacity, with upwards of 90 persons enjoying the beach at one time. Perch fishing continues to be good, though pike fishing has slowed down.

Park Busy Place

The State Highway Department tourist park, west of the village was a busy place during the July 4th holiday weekend. A number of out-of-town license plates were noticed including California, New York, Illinois, Indiana. The County Road Commission maintains the park for the Highway Department.

Little League

Loretto-Vulcan handed Hermansville a defeat in Little League play Monday night at Loretto, 6-1. Larry Raiche led the Hermansville attack with two hits, in three trips. Baciak got credit for the win for Loretto-Vulcan, while Tim McClure was charged with the loss.

Sportsman's Club

The Sportsman's Club will meet at Rodman's dining room Tuesday, July 14 at 8:30 p.m. Reports will be heard on the July 4th celebration.

Board Meets

The Meyer Township Board held their regular meeting at the Fire Station Monday evening. Routine business matters were discussed.

Babe Ruth

Hermansville's Babe Ruth team gave the league leader Niagara a 4-0 run for their money Monday night on the local diamond, succumbing finally 4-3. Hermansville got four hits off Magainn, all singles by Randy Pochesato, Jerry Ayotte and two by Douglas LaCourse. Magainn got credit for the win, while Douglas LaCourse was charged with the loss, although he struck out 10 batsmen.

Pike Catcher

Willard Mattson of Detroit, visiting with friends here caught a 25 inch northern pike, Dennis Gustafson caught a 23 inch pike, and Francis Stout a 22½ inch pike, all this week at the Hermansville Lake.

New Officers

HERMANVILLE — The Hermansville public Schools Board of Education met at the Community Club Monday evening for its re-organization meeting. James E. Gribble, was elected president; Reuben J. Marcoe, re-elected treasurer; and Lester L. Johnson, re-elected secretary. Three new members were seated at the meeting, Gorge Mauli, Woodrow Trudell and Mrs. Clifford Labombard.

Study Special School Program

The need for a special education program in Delta and Schoolcraft counties (now the Delta-Schoolcraft Intermediate School District) will be studied by citizens committees in each county, with the prospect of a vote on the subject in June next year.

Determining the need for and the establishing of special education programs to fill that need are some of the opportunities afforded the people of a school district under Public Act 289 providing for reorganization of school districts.

Last month the voters of Schoolcraft county voted to annex to the Delta Intermediate School District, which has Hagle Quarstrom of Gladstone as its superintendent. Mrs. Bada Hough of Manistique, the former superintendent of the Schoolcraft district, was appointed deputy superintendent of the new two-county district.

Seven On Board

Upon annexation or consolidation of county school districts the five-member board must be increased to seven. The Delta-Schoolcraft board, meeting recently at Manistique, appointed to the board Mrs. Ian McKilligan and Donald MacLean to serve until the next biennial election.

They and five others compose the Delta-Schoolcraft board. Walter Vande Weghe of Kipling is president; Leroy Hamilton of Gladstone is treasurer; Carl Van Remortel of Fayette, Harry Johnson Jr., Flat Rock, and Frank Bender Jr., Soo Hill, trustees.

Earlier this year the Delta Intermediate Board of Education adopted a resolution sponsoring the formation of a citizens committee to make a study of the need for a special education program. The study was delayed until annexation of the Schoolcraft district was completed, and the Board will discuss the formation of the proposed committee at its meeting to be held July 28.

Need Financing

A meeting of people interested in serving on a study committee will be held in Manistique the latter part of this month. The two committees will coordinate their work and report back to the Board.

Hundreds Join In Program To Salute C&NW

Hundreds of persons are involved in preparation for Escanaba's Ore Centennial celebration program to be held Saturday — and thousands will join in saluting the Chicago & North Western Railway Co. on the 100th anniversary of ore shipping from this port.

The Escanaba Yacht Club is meeting tonight to discuss arrangements for the colorful Venetian Night which will climax the Saturday program. The parade of gaily decorated boats along the waterfront will have more than usual significance in the celebration, for Escanaba first achieved prominence as the city with the fine natural harbor.

Boats and shipping, marine traffic, and even the pleasure craft have a special interest for one of the C&NW Railway officials who will be honored here on Saturday. Ben W. Heineman, the C&NW chairman of the board, is an enthusiastic yachtsman, and sails his own boat on Green Bay from his summer place in Door County.

Banquet Tickets
Heineman and C. J. Fitzpatrick, president of the C&NW, and other top officials of the Railway will be recognized during the program and will have places of honor at the banquet to be held Saturday evening at the Escanaba Area High School. Carl W. Hogberg, U. S. Steel Corp.'s vice president, raw materials services, and a native of Escanaba will be the speaker.

Wesley Hansen, Ore Centennial committee general chairman, reported that Thursday night is the deadline for banquet ticket reservations.

Couples, wives and husbands, have made reservations and additional tickets are being purchased by groups interested in expressing a unity of interest in congratulating the North Western and observing the Ore Centennial.

Tickets are available at the Escanaba Chamber of Com-

Street Dance

An Ore Handlers Shindig — a real old-fashioned street dance within sight of the North Western ore dock — will be held Friday night as a preview of Ore Centennial fun.

The event is sponsored by a group of North Town residents and friends of Carl W. Hogberg, vice president, raw materials services, U. S. Steel Corp., Pittsburgh. The dance will begin at 9 p. m. Friday and will be held in the 1500 block, Sheridan Road.

Councilman H. George Nelson said that he and other classmates of Hogberg, expect Hogberg to make an appearance at the dance and greet old friends in the neighborhood where he lived. Leonard "Gump" Olson is chairman of the event that will bring together members of the Escanaba High School Class of 1931.

Nelson said the public is invited to the dance and that an offering will be received to pay for music and assist in financing a North Town youth recreation program.

merce, through the Chamber's Senior Citizens Committee, Nelson's Cash Store, Gust Asp's, and at the City Hall.

Plan Many Events

The banquet is one event of an eventful day that will begin with the firing of aerial bombs and the sounding of whistles and bells at 9 a. m. The raising of the colors at Ludington Park; a noon luncheon for officials and guests at the House of Ludington; a parade in the afternoon are some of the other events of the day.

The Escanaba Aqua-Nuts will present their water ski show following the dedication of the Escanaba Centennial plaque around 4 p. m. This is the second show of the season for the group and most of the members who performed last Sun-

Erlandsen Up For Re-election In District 107

The senior legislator of the Upper Peninsula in the Michigan Legislature today announced that he would seek re-election in the new 107th District in the eastern U. P.

He is Einar E. Erlandsen of 1014 N. 16th St., Escanaba, who is now representing the Delta District in the Legislature. He is serving his 8th term in this position, having been elected first in 1948 and every term since then. This district is disappearing in the new apportionment of the Michigan Legislature and Delta County becomes part of the much larger 107th District.

During his 12 years in office Erlandsen has served on the Legislature's important Committee on Education and has been honored by the Michigan Education Association for his services to public schooling. Because of his seniority he was appointed to the Ways and Means (Appropriations) Committee in 1961, a position he still holds.

Erlandsen is a former paper maker at the Escanaba Division mill of Mead Corp. at Groos and he was active in organization of the credit union at Mead and served 7 years as its manager and treasurer until his election to the Legislature. He has entered the vending business since becoming a legislator.

Rep. and Mrs. Erlandsen are parents of a son, Leon Erlandsen, 1011 N. 16th St., and have two grandchildren.

The new district in which Erlandsen seeks election is made up of Delta County, except Cornell, Baldwin and Maple Ridge townships. Also Schoolcraft County except Seney Township, all of Luce County and that part of Chippewa County in which Whitefish, Bay Mills, Superior and Soo Townships and Sugar Island are located. The district includes the City of Sault Ste. Marie and excepts the the southern part of the county.

Erlandsen said that his decision to seek re-election was influenced by the Upper Peninsula's loss of representation in the new apportionment of the Legislature. "It is advisable that District 107 retain a representative with many years of experience in problems affecting the Upper Peninsula," he said.

There have been no other Democratic candidates for nomination in the 107th as yet, but Mrs. Marion Gibson of Newberry has announced her candidacy for the Republican nomination. She is a medical technician and wife of a physician.

Smoking Curb Aids Offered By State TB Agency

Two new aids are now available for persons desiring to quit smoking.

One is a plastic cigarette case, produced jointly by the Michigan Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, state Christmas Seal agency, and the American Cancer Society, Michigan Division. The case is imprinted with the message: "Do I Really Want This Cigarette? Breathe Easier . . . Live Longer. Check Bronchitis, Cancer, Emphysema."

Use of such a case by patients with health problems caused by smoking was recommended last fall to the Michigan Academy of General Practice by a Louisville physician who reported it had helped some smokers to reduce or cut out cigarette smoking.

The cases have been made available through Michigan physicians who are general practitioners, thoracic physicians or internists and should be obtained through them. Also available by writing directly to the MTRDA, 403 Seymour, Lansing, Mich. are pamphlets titled "Cigarette Smoking — The Facts."

R. A. Patterson Of Daggett Dies

Robert A. Patterson, 72, prominent resident of Daggett, died this morning at Marinette General Hospital. He had been owner and operator of Daggett Mercantile since 1932, and served as Village of Daggett president four years.

Mr. Patterson was born in Weaver, Iowa, July 12, 1891, and he married the former Hazel Gilmore Nov. 20, 1912, in Chicago.

He was a member of Stephenson Lodge 492, F. & A. M., the Consistory and Ahmed Shrine of Marquette, Twin City Shrine Club and Mid-County Men's Club.

Surviving are his wife, one son, Robert G. Daggett, two daughters, Mrs. Corna (Evelyn) Sanders and Mrs. Ray (Hazel) Senger, Stephenson, two sisters, Mrs. James Marrow, Keosauqua, Iowa, and Mrs. William Lowery, Sedgwick, Colo., five grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m., at Daggett Moravian Church with the Rev. Robert Gohdes officiating and burial will be in Stephenson Township Cemetery.

Friends of the family may call at the Diehm Funeral Home, Stephenson, from 2 p. m., Thursday until noon Friday, and at the church from 1 p. m., Friday until the funeral hour.

Masonic services will be held at the funeral chapel Thursday at 8 p. m., and the church prayer service will be held at 8:30 p. m.

Hospital

Mrs. Grace Gustafson of 312 S. 16th St., is a surgical patient in St. Francis Hospital, Room 365. She is permitted to have visitors.

He entered E&LS service May 1, 1918 as a section laborer and has served in several positions, including hostler during the steam engine years and as a locomotive fireman. He retired this week as a storekeeper and plans to spend his time "perch fishing and gardening." (Daily Press Photo)

Who's To Rule?

Legislation designed to give Congress, rather than the Federal courts, the final word in setting population standards for Congressional districts has cleared a House subcommittee by unanimous voice vote. Michigan, having just gone through an ordeal of congressional redistricting which cut the Upper Peninsula's representation in Congress from 1½ congressmen to 1½ congressmen (or thereabouts) should be very interested in this play.

The measure proposes that all House members, beginning in the 1966 election, must be selected from "compact, contiguous" districts whose population varies by no more than 15 pct. from the norm. The 15 pct. deviation would unsettle present congressional boundaries in some states, but nearly all of them are under court pressures to redraw their boundaries anyway and Michigan has already done it. The U. P. would not have fared as badly under the proposed Congressional legislation as it has under state action ordered by a federal court.

The bill, once controversial, has been cheered by lawmakers of all persuasions since the Supreme Court ruled in February that all congressmen from a state must represent roughly equal numbers of people. The broad backing of the bill comes from the hope that congressional guidelines will give states more leeway than the courts would otherwise allow.

The bill would permit states to keep the responsibility for redistricting so long as they followed the guidelines set by Congress; the federal courts could only intervene when they failed to do so.

The legislation has acquired a new regard in Congress since the Supreme Court's decision recently extending the one-man-one-vote rule to all state legislatures. The legislation would not deal directly with this problem, but it is obviously collateral and would influence such apportionment.

Chairman Celler (D-N Y) of the Judiciary Committee called the bill "A step of major significance" but set no date for full committee action. The measure is expected to reach the House floor and to encounter little difficulty there, but the Senate poses more problems. Senators run statewide and they have less concern about congressional districting problems than do their brothers of the House.

The nose count method of assigning seats in Congress, with ill defined tolerances of variance has caused the Upper Peninsula's 15 counties to be thrown into the new 11th Congressional District, along with Emmet, Cheboygan, Presque Isle, Charlevoix, Otsego, Montmorency and Alpena counties in the Lower Peninsula. That's a total of 22 counties. Wayne and Oakland counties have 8 congressmen.

The population basis is clearly the most equitable for apportionment, but carrying the court's one-man-one-vote to an intolerant exactitude violates orderly districting and gives to one congressman the formidable task of representing the 403,507 people who live in a very separated way in a huge land mass that comprises more than a third of Michigan. No single journal nor electronic medium covers this area and the problems of communication are serious. Congressmen, in their concern for their jobs, seem about to perform a public service in curbing the court's tendency to make population the sole basis of governmental organization.

Critters Who Litter

This is the season the litterbug is in his glory. What gives with this character? What makes a person toss a popcorn box or a beer can or a pop bottle or a flutter of cleansing tissue from a moving car to clutter up the roadside? How can anyone enjoy a picnic in a public park and then walk off without cleaning up the litter — or even extinguishing the fire? How can people tear the wrappings off candy bars and clamly drop them to the sidewalk? We don't know the answer. But people do it — by the thousands.

There are warnings and penalties against it. There are constant campaigns against it. There are fervent appeals to good citizenship, neatness and plain good manners. They are all ignored.

Do these people act like this in their own homes? You can't see how they could, but maybe they do. At least they advertise themselves as sloppy.

The outdoor season is on. We all want to enjoy it. It is more fun when things are neat and clean. Remember — every litter bit hurts.

The Doctor Says:

Cool Off Rage, Or Suffer

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt.

Let's see what happens when you "blow your stack" when angry. It has been found that you take deeper breaths, your pulse quickens, your blood pressure rises and your digestion stops as the blood is drawn from your alimentary tract to your muscles.

In such blinding rage you may be especially prone to an accident if you are driving a car, operating a machine in a factory or handling hot soup in a kitchen.

Plainly such a state calls for cooling off. On the other hand, pent-up anger can cause a chronically high blood pressure, peptic ulcer, colitis, angina pectoris and other so-called psychosomatic ailments.

Because anger causes a sudden squeezing of adrenalin into your blood it may be associated with a sudden pain in the region of your adrenal glands and a sudden surge of blood to your head may precipitate a headache.

Adrenalin poured into the blood served the primitive purpose of preparing a person for a sudden burst of energy — fight or flight. But in a civilized community neither of these actions is appropriate.

Since it is no longer socially acceptable to lose control of your temper, you are apt to wind up with physical symptoms.

"We Don't Seem to Be Getting Anywhere, Senor!"

Washington Comment

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Congress could move by late August to try to bar U. S. courts from taking a hand in state reapportionment.

A sense of urgency grips those in and out of Congress who want to forestall general overhaul of state legislatures in accord with the Supreme Court's June 15 ruling which decreed that both legislative houses must be apportioned on a population basis.

If action on a constitutional amendment to nullify this decree is not quickly begun, opponents of the decision fear it may be too late. A high proportion of state legislatures meet in early 1965 and will be under compulsion to act under the court's ruling.

Senate Republican leader Everett Dirksen of Illinois already has sparked a GOP Policy Committee discussion of a proposed amendment. And Rep. William McCulloch, R-Ohio, is pushing a similar proposition in the House.

Policy Committee members want time to study the idea. A Dirksen staff man is busy raking over old cases which might throw light on the constitutional aspects of the matter.

A number of young women from this area who are serving in the WAVES have arranged to have their leaves come at the same time and are planning a reunion. Among these are Ethel Pearson, Dorothy and Marge Rydholm and Florence C. Johnson, all of Escanaba.

Thirty Years Ago
Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Shaw who recently returned to this country from India, and their infant son John, plan to spend the summer in a cottage at the South Bay Shore.

The Rev. Fr. Roger Hengeholt, of Cincinnati, O., has been appointed assistant pastor to the Rev. Fr. Edward Leary of St. Joseph's parish. He succeeds Father Simeon Felder.

Upper Michigan's first penthouse is being erected in Ironwood by B. A. Morgan on the roof of his business block in that city. It supplements an apartment his family occupies in the same structure.

Meantime, a big head of steam is building up. Some 15 governors perturbed at the court's decision have conveyed their concern to Dirksen and others.

The presently suggested language of what may be called the Dirksen amendment reads as follows:

"Each state shall have exclusive power to determine the composition of its legislature and the apportionment of the membership of each house thereof."

"Such power shall not be infringed by the United States or by any branch of government thereof."

Dirksen does not indicate it, but it is a fact that sweeping reapportionment might rob the Illinois State Senate of several Republican seats. Pressure to block such a change is bearing down on him and others with similar home state situations.

Yet the breadth and intensity of interest in a blocking amendment is no assurance that it would find easy, automatic ratification from the necessary 38 state legislatures.

Some specialists in federal-state relations argue that numerous state legislatures with one house already reasonably well-founded on population may resist an amendment banning all federal court intervention.

The list of such legislatures is expected to swell this year. Unless the counter-force of a blocking amendment intervenes, the total could expand rapidly in 1965.

One significant straw in the wind comes out of Sarasota, Fla., where a large group of southern legislators, state administrators and other state officials took a surprisingly mild tack in a resolution approved just four days after the Supreme Court decision. They did not demand that the U. S. courts be barred altogether from stepping into state reapportionment.

These 225 officials, meeting at the Southern Conference of the Council of State Governments, simply urged a flexible approach which would take account of "regional and local values" and allow one legislative house to be apportioned according to criteria other than population.

And it should not be forgotten that a roughly similar blocking amendment, initiated at the state level in early 1963, has so far won approval in just 14 states—all in the southern, border, plains and western areas of the country.

The McMillan baseball team under the management of Max Anderson defeated the Newberry nine on the local diamond by the score of 6-2 behind the brilliant pitching of righthander, Gary McInnis. With this win McMillan kept its slate clean with no losses and held on to first place. In a makeup game with Germfask they again defeated the other team by the score of 12-5.

Education Pays 17 Pct Return On Investment

Dr. T. W. Schultz, University of Chicago economist, calculated that for each dollar spent for all education there is a return of about 17 cents each year — a 17 per cent return on investment.

Education is looked upon by most citizens as a cost and a burden to the public, states MSU Extension Economist Arthur Mauch. No one would deny that education is costly, says Mauch, but it is also an investment which pays handsome dividends to both the individual and to the nation, he states.

Because of the low cost per student and particularly no earnings foregone, the return on investment for elementary schooling is about 30 per cent each year, Dr. Schultz states. On the other hand, because of earnings foregone while in high school and college and the increased costs per student due to expensive laboratories, the returns are substantially lower for high school and college. Dr. Schultz estimates that returns for high school are approximately 14 per cent and for college around 12 per cent per year on each dollar spent.

Mauch states that in Michigan this year 121,000 youth will reach 18. In 1965 this number will skyrocket to 165,700 — a 36 per cent increase in one year. These 18-year-olds have three choices — to find a job, be among the unemployed, or seek additional training.

Not all of our youth desire a college education and not all are satisfied, Mauch says. Furthermore, many of our occupations do not require college training but there is little future in our highly technical and automated society for the unskilled, he states.

Ann Landers

Anxiety Blamed For Ailments

Dear Ann Landers: After spending several hundred dollars to come to this world-famous medical center the doctor had the nerve to tell me there is nothing wrong with me.

The final consultation took one hour. The doctor reviewed the X-rays, and previous history going back 10 years. He ended the consultation by telling me that I am in good physical condition and that I should go home and find something to keep me busy.

What he was saying was I am healthy as a horse but I am nuts — that I imagine the headaches, backaches and stomach pains.

When doctors can't get to the root of the trouble why do they always tell the patient his troubles are imaginary? as I feel a dizzy spell coming on and I'm due for another eye-piercing headache, — ILL, BUT UNDIAGNOSED

Dear Ill: I know your type. You will now go from doctor to doctor, shopping around until somebody sells you an operation. But that won't be the end of it. You will then complain about your adhesions.

What you don't understand is that aches and pains from imaginary illness are real. The pain is there, but it is caused by anxiety, tension, and unresolved problems. Only when you get your emotional machinery in good running condition will you feel better.

I'm sure your doctor tried to tell you this but some people reject any diagnosis that suggests they have an emotional problem.

Dear Ann Landers: My husband went into a new business. He is having serious financial difficulty and the bills are mounting. Bob is bright and hard-working and I feel confident that if he stays with this business he will eventually do well.

The question is, should I go to work to help him out? I have a profession and could make excellent money. We have two children and my mother lives with us. She could take care of the house and watch the children. Mother is urging me to stay home and let Bob work things out somehow. Her battle cry is, "Once he gets used to your paycheck he'll never stand on his own."

Please tell me what to do. I feel dreadful knowing I could help my husband over this hurdle—and I'm not doing it.—

GUILTY CONSCIENCE
Dear G. C.: This problem is essentially yours and your husband's. It should be decided by the two of you—and not by your mother.

Since you feel your husband needs your help, I hope you will offer it to him.

Dear Ann Landers: My fiancée has an important birthday coming up. I asked him what he would like and he replied, "For years I have secretly wanted a diamond ring in a gold mounting." Frankly, I was shocked.

I always had the idea that only gamblers, gangsters or kept men wore diamond rings. I don't know where I picked up this notion, but it is firmly fixed in my mind. If I am wrong will you please tell me.

Dear Ida: You ARE wrong, and I am telling you. All kinds of men wear diamond rings—for all kinds of reasons. It is not the trademark of undesirable characters. It is a matter of personal taste.

CONFIDENTIAL TO EXECUTIVE SUITE: Obviously the last guy in his office sells him. Your best hope is to be the last guy to get his ear before the important decisions are made.

Too many starry-eyed lovers do not know the difference. Do you? Send for ANN LANDER'S booklet, "Before You Marry—Is It Love Or Sex?", enclosing with your request 20c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Peninsula Potpourri

HOUGHTON—A delegation of Finns touring the Copper Country recently, was well supplied with U. S. currency until they arrived at the Arcadian Tourist Mine in Ripley. Then the situation grew difficult, but Arvo Walitalo, head of the mine company told the travelers that he would accept their money at its equivalent in American exchange. As a result, the Arcadian offices are flush with Finnish marks, which Walitalo says he will exchange with persons planning to go to Finland. The dollar is valued at slightly in excess of three Finnish marks.

KINGSFORD—The strike at the site of the new Kingsford High School ended last week and the picket lines were removed. Work on the new school is back to normal. Local 1329 of the Construction and General Laborers Union had maintained the picket lines since May 20. The controversy involved a jurisdictional dispute between the plumber's local and the laborer's local over which union had the right to do certain work assigned by the plumbing and heating contractor, Great Lakes Plumbing & Heating.

CHIPPEWA COUNTY—A serious outbreak of cattle blackleg may be developing in Bruce Township of Chippewa County and has forced one farmer to destroy 16 head of infected cattle. Vaccination is the only sure way to prevent the disease. Animals must be inoculated before they are 18 months of age and sheep can also be infected.

ISHPEMING—The nation's most celebrated drum and bugle corps units will take part in the "Bugler's Holiday" to be held at the Ishpeming Playgrounds, Saturday, August 1. Notifying the Ishpeming Blue Note Drum and Bugle Corps of intentions to be in Ishpeming for the yearly event are the Menominee Northernaires, St. Mathias of Milwaukee, the Madison Scouts of Madison, Wis., the Mercury Thunderbolts of Cedarburg, Wis., and the L'Anse Golden Eagles. A parade will be held at 3 p. m. and competition starts at 7 p. m.

COPPER HARBOR—Construction equipment moved on to the tip of Keweenaw Peninsula here, preparing the ground for the launching of scientific research rockets this summer. Scientists from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, plan to fire five upper atmosphere rockets for weather bureau experiments, late in July or August. A staff from Michigan Tech. will cooperate with the launches. The scientific rockets, carrying small payloads to take readings at altitudes of 60 to 80 miles, will be shot almost straight up, dropping back into Lake Superior waters. During the firings sometime after July 15, all roads to the Peninsula will be blocked and shipping will be restricted in the vicinity.

MENOMINEE—Increased employment is forecast for the Menominee foundry of Giddings & Lewis Machine Tool Co. Walter J. Gotstein, foundry manager, predicted that employment at the local plant will increase by upwards of 50 per cent during the next year. The foundry now employs 76 men. Gotstein said G&L had sales of 24 million in 1963 and by 1965, annual sales will be 35 million.

Water Ski Wake Drowns Fishermen

PONTIAC (AP)—A warrant was ordered Tuesday charging Robert B. Deters Jr., 18, of Wyandotte, with reckless operation of water skis in the drowning of a fisherman. Assistant Oakland County Prosecutor Robert Templin charged that Deters created a wake from his water skis that caused fisherman William Hickmott, 62, of Detroit, to fall from his boat. Templin said witnesses stated Hickmott was standing in the boat with fishing gear when the wake from Deters' skis upset him in Upper Straits Lake, Oakland County.

Postage Stamps Kiwanis Topic

Government issue postage stamps are 117 years old this week, Escanaba Kiwanis Club members were told Monday by Postmaster James E. Pryal, who discussed the origin and designs of prepaid mail since it was made official Jan. 1, 1856. Prior to that time cancellations on letter mail were varied and left to the inventiveness of individual postmasters. These old letters are now rare collectors' items.

Designs for new stamps are selected by the postoffice department with the advice of a committee of experts. Pryal said, as he outlined the steps in the preparation and printing of stamps. Classes of stamps are in five general categories, the regular postage stamps, with values up to $5; the memorial stamps, which include pictures of past U. S. Presidents and world figures; air mail stamps; special purpose issues; and commemorative stamps which record notable events, the first one in the series being the Chicago World's Fair stamp of 1893. A recent example of the commemorative stamp was in 1962 for Project Mercury, the first flight of astronauts. Details of this 310,000,000 issue were kept secret and parcels of stamps were sent in plain wrappers to postmasters with instructions for the release date after the space orbit success. These stamps are also popular with philatelists. The program Monday was arranged by Burton Butler. Next week the program will cover new processes in paper-making, a feature supplied by the Mead Paper Corp., with William Mulvaney as program chairman. Warren Johnston, general chairman of the Kiwanis pancake days held last month, announced that the net proceeds of the project amounted to $1,456, which will go into the club's fund for boys and girls work and youth services.

During 1960, major fires in the U. S. cost almost $325 million, a record high.

The Will Wonders Ever Cease Department has an entry from the Faithorn area. Last winter a dairy barn there burned. After the blaze had been underway an hour and the mow had been burned off one of the fire fighters heard a moo from the first floor of the barn and when it was opened all 50-odd head of the herd were found alive. A litter of sand from a half century of hay handling had built up on the heavily planked floor of barn and prevented the fire from burning through to the cattle beneath.

Cecelia Hetrick was admitted to the Tahquamenon General Hospital in Newberry and for surgery.

The bird was taken to an open field, when it had completely recovered, and released. The area is being kept under surveillance by Forest Service personnel and the Michigan Conservation Department.

School Board Elects Officers

The Manistique board of education, at an organization meeting Monday night, elected Denton Nelson president. Others elected were John W. Moffat, vice president, Mrs. Duane Waters, secretary and Mrs. Paul Larson, treasurer.

During the session, board members asked the superintendent, E. E. Wuehle to explore possibilities for a cooperative recreation program, such as that now in effect between the city and school for boys basketball.

A report was received on preliminary discussions for a shared-time use of home economics and shop facilities by parochial students.

A release from contract was granted Walter Bard, who has a naval appointment to teach at an Air Base in Catania, Sicily. Approvals were given for textbook purchases, typewriter purchases and payment plan for the school bus.

Following the business meeting board members toured the school, where remodeling is underway to convert unused space at the rear of the auditorium into guidance counseling rooms, provide classroom space on the stage, and make other improvements to the central facility.

MANISTIQUE

Daniel Giovannini Weds Kathleen Kerrigan

Saturday, June 20, before an altar banked with all-white flowers in St. Joseph's Church, Marinette, Kathleen Ann Kerrigan became the bride of John Daniel Giovannini, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Giovannini of Manistique. An 11 o'clock nuptial Mass was celebrated by the Very Rev. Omer Champagne.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Kerrigan of Marinette, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a full-length gown of embroidered damask brocade with chapel train and long sleeves. It had modified scoop neckline and a cummerbund decorated with seed pearls and a fabric rose where it fastened at the waist. Her veil was a white lace mantilla and her bridal bouquet was composed of long-stemmed white roses tied with blue ribbon.

Mrs. John W. Ribbens of Green Bay, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Other attendants were Ruth Ann Zoellens of Stratford, Wis., and Mary Kathryn Kerrigan of Green Bay, another sister.

The attendants wore gowns of embroidered light blue cotton with elbow length sleeves, bell skirts, scoop necklines, fitted bodices and matching jackets. Their pillbox hats were trimmed to match the gowns and each carried a bouquet of three long-stemmed white roses. White accessories completed the ensembles.

The bridegroom's attendant was Giacomo Baratto of Houghton, and the groomsmen were David Zoch and David Allen, both of Green Bay. Ushers were Robert Brice and Francis Johanski, also of Green Bay.

The organist was Gervais Giovannini, a sister of the bridegroom. She played as a processional a wedding march composed for the occasion by Dorothy Giovannini, another sister of the bridegroom. Michael J. Kerrigan, brother of the bride, was soloist and sang the Mass of the Angels. His solos included the Bach-Gonoud "Ave Maria," Caesar Franck's "Panis Angelicus," and "Now Joined by God," a Bach chorale.

Acolytes at the nuptial Mass were Patrick and Thomas Kerrigan, brothers of the bride.

The bride's mother was attired in pink embroidered organza-over-taffeta with matching hat and white accessories.

After the nuptials a reception was held at the Knights of Columbus clubroom. Lunch was served to 135 guests from tables decorated in blue and white appointments.

Mr. Giovannini is a graduate of Northern Michigan University, where he attained a bachelor's degree in science degree in sociology. He also holds a master's degree in radio and television from Ohio University. The new Mrs. Giovannini is a graduate of St. Norbert's College in Green Bay, where she received the degree of bachelor of science in education.

Following a wedding trip to San Francisco and Hawaii the couple will be at home in Paso Pazo, American Samoa, where Mr. Giovannini is director of operations for the Samoan government's educational television project. Mrs. Giovannini has been engaged as a teacher in the Samoan school system.

Guests were present from communities in Wisconsin, Upper Michigan and Illinois and included the Rev. Vincent J. DeLeers, dean of St. Norbert's College, who was present on the altar.

Senior Citizens Party Planned

Senior citizens of Schoolcraft County have been invited to a "get-acquainted" party at the Youth Center Tuesday, July 14 at 7:30 p. m.

Sponsored by the Council on Aging, the party has been planned by Mrs. Earl H. LeBrasseur and Mrs. William Hood with Mrs. Richard Bonifas and Mrs. E. J. Doyle, assisting.

The program will include a hootenany of nostalgic tunes, led by Mrs. Eugene Johnson, playing autoharp accompaniment, Rev. Harry J. Davidson and his Combo, and square dancing by one set with Alex Creighton as caller.

The group will decide in a business session if it wishes to organize, elect officers and plan future meetings. There is no charge for the party. Rides made be obtained by calling Harold Carlson or Mrs. Nick Frankovich Sr.

Letters To The Press

PRaise TO ALL

This is a "pat on the back" to Dr. Waters, the personnel at Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital, and the whole community. We live in a summer resort area and we know how nice it is to hear something nice about one's community.

On Monday, June 22, while we were camping at Indian Lake, our seven-year-old boy David gashed his leg. We took him to the emergency room of the hospital; Dr. Waters was called and he stitched the cut.

Of course in the excitement after the mishap we had left all our money at the campsite and the clerk at the hospital simply took our name and address and my husband brought the money the next day.

I suppose the excellent care received at the hospital and from the doctor is standard procedure. We want you to know how much the friendliness and consideration which was extended was appreciated. We were very impressed and you can be sure we told everyone at home about the nice people in Manistique!

There were many other people we encountered during our four days in your area. They were just as friendly and helpful... waitresses, clerks in a grocery store, the rangers at Indian Lake, an attendant at a laundromat and many others.

In spite of the cold weather, the bugs, and our son's mishap, we had a good time, and a memorable vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. David Strom

Freeland Family Holds Reunion

At their cottage on Gulliver Lake, July 4, the Philip Freeland family hosted a combination Freeland reunion and going-away party for Philip's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Freeland, who leave Tuesday for an extended visit to Alaska and other parts of the U. S.

Forty-five members of the Freeland family attended, including Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lockwood, Jr. and family, of Minneapolis, Major and Mrs. Nelson Freeland and family, Lincoln, Neb., Mr. and Mrs. Kendall Freeland, Mr. and Mrs. Oran Freeland, Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Freeland and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jahnke and their families of Milwaukee, Wis. Also present were the two great-grandmothers, Mrs. Olga Freeland, Gulliver, and Mrs. William Graff, Milwaukee, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Raoul DeMers, 120 N. 5th St. will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Freeland on their trip.

Book Sale Will Benefit Hospital

The Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital Auxiliary is sponsoring a book sale at the Ford Garage all this week through Saturday. Co-Chairmen are Mrs. Ian McKilligan, Mrs. Vert Guidebeck, Mrs. Robert Kanerva and Mrs. William Hood.

More books are urgently needed, the committee reports, and any type of books, including hard covers, paperbacks, pocket editions and all kinds of sheet music are welcome.

Lancers' Folks Meet Thursday

The Parents Club for the Lancers is holding a meeting Thursday at 7:30 p. m., and will include reports in the appreciation shown the Drum and Bugle Corps in appearances at Newberry State Hospital and the Luce County Airport, where several hundred were present.

The Corps had four shows July Fourth, as it also performed in the Manistique parade and in the evening show July 4th in Hall stadium.

Chaperones for the Newberry trip were LeRoy Fox, president of the Parents Club, Mrs. Ed Doyle, vice president, Louis Rogers, director, Ed Leonard, business manager, Ben Muthaupt, Mrs. Arthur Mattlin and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Tennyson, publicity, Vincent Atherton, bus driver and Mrs. Atherton.

The club holds a rummage sale every Thursday and Friday for the Corps, during the summer. Those who have donations for it may call Mrs. Atherton.

Plan Meeting On Control Of Forest Insects

A Forest-wide training meeting on insect control is scheduled by the U. S. Forest Service here July 23-24.

Insects are one of the major problems of forest management. At present the Manistique district is practicing techniques which minimize insect problems. No spraying is underway.

Most of the problems occur in pine plantations. White grubs treated with aldrin in the ground at planting time, Saratoga spittlebugs, bark beetles root collar weevils and white pine tipmoths are among insects which give trouble in these forests.

Jackpine budworms have caused trouble in past years but there is little damage from them this year. The larch sawfly epidemic is concluding, after causing some damage two to three years ago, but little this year.

A PARTY OF STATE OFFICIALS landed at the Schoolcraft County airport Tuesday in a site study for a state training school proposed for 15-21 year-olds. A 2-3 year program for as many as 500 boys is envisioned. Outside assistance as well as government aid would finance the project. The party included Glen Allen, state controller; Rep. Thomas G. Sharpe of Howell, Rep. Clifford Peras of Nadeau, left, Melvin Ritter, architect of the State Building Division Administrative Department, and Glen Tanner, fire marshal.

Training School Proposed In U.P.

MANISTIQUE — State officials Tuesday made an air tour of Upper Michigan, inspecting sites for a proposed vocational education school for students dropping out of high school and for unemployed youths. While in the Peninsula, the group stopped at Blaney Park.

Students in the 15-21 age group would be benefitted in the program, which would be eligible for types of federal assistance. Two to three years of training in various employments would be provided.

Dr. Elgar L. Grim, deputy superintendent for public instruction, noted that the facility, if established, would be unique in the nation and would seek to correct problems arising for student dropouts and unemployed youths.

The school would reduce juvenile delinquency problems. Some help to physically handicapped youngsters also is envisioned through training to help them become wage earners and taxpayers.

Two planes flew the legislative and administrative officials here. Headed by Rep. Clifford E. Perras of Nadeau, a committee has been working these problems, with the help and guidance of Gov. George Romney the past several months.

Rep. Perras, Rep. Thomas G. Sharpe, Howell, vice chairman of the committee; Glenn Allen, state controller; Melvin Ritter, architect with the Building Division of the State Administrative Board; Glen Tanner, fire marshal; Dr. Grim, Max Cockrin, legislative consultant for the Department of Public Instruction; Robert M. Winger, assistant superintendent for vocational education; Don Clemens, fiscal officer for the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation and Gerald Harmon, Howell, a realtor, were in the party.

Saddle Clubs Stage Show

Dickinson County Saddle Clubs are sponsoring a horse show Sunday, July 12, at the Dickinson County fairgrounds, one mile south of Norway on U.S. 8.

Judging of classes will start at 9:30 a. m. and the action events begin at 1 p. m. Trophies will be given to the high point winners and the runner up in each class. Entry fees will be $1.00 for morning and afternoon classes.

Lunch will be available at the fairgrounds.

Entrants may send applications for rule books and entry blanks to secretary of activities, Judy Campbell, Box 63, Vulcan, Mich.

Carney-Nadeau Officers Elected

The Carney-Nadeau Board of Education held its annual reorganization meeting July 6 and elected officers for the 1964-65 school year. The following persons were chosen: president, Eugene Peterson; secretary, Verne Moran; treasurer, Clement Linder; and trustees, Emmett Anderson, Joseph Laurin, Bruce Crandall, and Victor Johnson.

Deltans Become Golden Eagles

Henry Patrick Flynn, Commerce 1910, Bank River, and Katherine Ansell Lux, General Education 1908, Escanaba, were among the 204 Ferris State College alumni who were inducted into the college's Society of the Golden Eagles at the annual alumni reunion in June. Golden Eagles are those alumni who attended the college at least 50 or more years ago. Twenty-eight were present at the reunion to receive their certificates in person.

Nuclear 'Snies' Are Sea Turtles

PORT CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Reports of unauthorized divers around two nuclear power submarines set off a port-wide search Tuesday.

Two Navy frogmen spotted what they thought was another diver while inspecting underwater electronic attachments on the hulls of the submarines Daniel Boone and John Adams. Civilian divers and an FBI agent joined in the search.

After several hours, they agreed the intruders were not spies seeking secrets but large sea turtles.

Leukemia Boy Story A Hoax

Police of the City of Upland, Calif., report that Andy Thomas Andekian does not have leukemia, is apparently healthy, and that appeals for money in his behalf are apparently a hoax.

On May 12, 1965, the Escanaba Daily Press received and published an appeal for money, presumably from the boy's mother, Mrs. W. J. Andekian, 1166 N. Campus Ave., Upland.

Funds were asked to pay for blood for the boy, who was reported to have had "52 blood transfusions in an attempt to save his life."

In support of the appeal the name of a doctor at UCLA Hospital in Los Angeles was given for publication, donations were asked to be made through "The First Southern Baptist Church of Upland" and the father of Andy was reported as employed by the Kaiser Steel Foundation at Fontana, Calif.

Escanaba Police Chief Harold Finman, at the request of the Escanaba Daily Press, was asked to contact authorities in Upland to verify the story. The Upland police replied.

"In reply to your letter of May 13, 1964, Mrs. William Andekian who lives at 1166 N. Campus Ave., Upland, was contacted. She stated that her child, Andy, is healthy and has no sickness that she knows of."

"I observed the child while questioning Mrs. Andekian and he seemed in good health."

"Mrs. Andekian stated that she has received approximately $5 which was sent to her by an unknown person somewhere in Michigan. The letter had been addressed to the First Southern Baptist Church at 1166 N. Campus Ave., Upland. We do not have a First Southern Baptist Church in the city of Upland."

"Mr. William Andekian is at this time in the California Men's Colony, Los Padres, Calif. He had been transferred there from San Quentin and is now waiting parole in June of 1965. He was sentenced to San Quentin for 3 years for forgery in November of 1962."

"Mrs. Andekian was questioned as to the articles that have appeared in various newspapers, and stated that she has no knowledge as to who could have put them in the paper."

Mrs. Andekian is at this time, living on county welfare.

Persons who have made contributions based on the appeal published in the Escanaba Daily Press have reported to the Press that they received acknowledgements to their gifts to "save Andy's life."

As late as May 28 a letter was received from the "pastor" of the First Southern Baptist Church at Upland (of the same address as that of Mrs. Andekian) thanking the Press for its help.

"Forty-two dollars has been raised from this appeal to be used for blood transfusions for little Andy Thomas Andekian." The letter concluded with blessings to contributors "although our goal hasn't been reached."

Frenchman Gets Life In Prison As Soviet Spy

PARIS (AP)—George Paques, 50, a former French press officer for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, has been convicted of spying for the Soviet Union and sentenced to life in prison.

In rejecting the prosecution's demand for the death penalty, the French state security court apparently accepted defense arguments that Paques was motivated by misguided patriotism.

Paques was arrested last August. He admitted passing documents to Soviet agents but said he hoped to prevent Soviet misunderstanding of the Western Allies' true intentions.

Escanaban LBJ Choice To Head U.S. Treasury

The many honors that have come to Donald C. Cook for his leadership in American electric utility industry appear about to be capped by his appointment as secretary of the U. S. Treasury.

He is pictured as one of President Johnson's most intimate and most consulted counselors on economic matters by Newsweek Magazine in its current issue. The magazine says: "Cook is facing a dilemma. Newsweek has learned that President Johnson wants him to accept an appointment as Treasury secretary, succeeding Douglas Dillon. Cook would prefer to stay in private life, but deep down he knows that if President Johnson presses him to take the cabinet position, he won't be able to say 'no.'"

Cook is the son of Mrs. Nelson Cook, Jr., 517 S. 11th St. and a graduate of Escanaba High School who received a degree in business administration from the University of Michigan and doctor and master of laws degrees from George Washington University.

LBJ Counselors
In its article reporting President Johnson's present counselors, Newsweek says that the administration's experts on finance and business—chiefly Economic Council Chairman Walter Heller, Budget Director Kermit Gordon, Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz, and, surprisingly, since he is enmeshed in so many other matters, Defense Secretary McNamara—are augmented by a small list of leading businessmen on such matters as the tax cut, the budget and the balance of payments.

"Foremost among the 'outsiders' group are two old friends, Donald C. Cook, president of the American Electric Power Co., a utilities holding company, and Robert B. Anderson, Treasury secretary under President Eisenhower and now a private investment adviser for wealthy individuals and corporations. Both are in New York."

"A second level of 'outsiders' includes Henry Ford II of Ford Motor Co., Ray Eppert, president of Burroughs Corp. of Detroit; Edgar Kaiser of Kaiser Industries in Oakland, Calif.; Frederick R. Koppel, chairman of American Telephone & Telegraph, and Crawford Greenwalt, chairman of E. I. du Pont. On Wall Street matters LBJ turns to an old lawyer friend Ed Weist of New York.

President's Friend
"Cook is the outsider to whom the President listens most closely on economic matters. The scholarly lawyer and accountant is a former chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission (1952-53). In the early 1940s he was the staff specialist feeding 'horrible examples' of wasted money and manpower to the chairman of a House naval subcommittee, Rep. Lyndon B. Johnson."

"The basic thread that runs through the progressive tone of the memos Cook sends to the President these days is that government must provide a framework for growth that will allow both business and labor bigger shares of the fiscal pie."

"Cook's influence will be evident in a series of speeches the President is expected to deliver soon on his evolving business philosophy."

Cook is the subject of an article "We're the Most Enterprising Utility in This Country" in the May issue of Fortune Magazine. "The way to meet the threat of public power in the U. S. is not to out-argue it, but to out-perform it," says Cook in the article. It plans to spend another billion by 1970.

Praise From Johnson
Since 1933, while the U. S. cost of living was roughly doubling, the average U. S. price of electric power has shrunk by more than one-third. AEP, as the industry's leading exponent of low rates and big sales volume, has kept its own average price 25 to 38 per cent below the national figure.

"Don Cook, who came to AEP in 1953 and took over the presidency in 1961, has turned out to be not only a 'financial man', as he likes to call himself, but a first class salesman and entrepreneur as well," says Fortune. "His equipment is ideal for guiding AEP through the political shoals that today surround any utility operation."

"A small-town Michigander educated at the University of Michigan, he became a financial analyst for the Security and Exchange Commission in 1935 and wound up as chairman in 1952. Meanwhile, working mostly at night, he had acquired two law degrees, qualified as a CPA, served as part-time counsel to several congressional committees, and acquired a number of powerful political friends, including Lyndon B. Johnson, who said of him 'He's rough, he's fair. I don't think there's an abler man in government.'"

Progress Is Made By City In Street Paving Program
The grading and graveling of S. 14th St. is expected to be completed and opened to traffic by the end of this week, Kenneth Touthack, public works superintendent, reported today.

The improvement is the first step in the project, which will be completed with blacktop paving in 1965.

Touthack said the city crews are installing curbing on 13th Ave. N. this week, and that by July 20 the street resurfacing work will be started in the city.

Fireworks Burn Manistique Boys
MANISTIQUE — Jeffrey Mattlin, 14, 538 Garden Ave., received burns on his hands and Edward Wright, 17, of 644 Garden Ave., incurred facial burns Sunday when the two exploded a piece of fireworks which they had found near the quarry where the Fourth of July fireworks program had been staged.

The boys were taken to Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital where Mattlin was treated and released Tuesday. Wright remained in the hospital for treatment and observation.

Public Safety Officers received the report of the accident Tuesday.

Delta Sportsmen To Hear Newport
Thomas Newport, hydraulic engineer with the U. S. Geological Survey, will be the speaker at the meeting of the Delta County Sportsmen's Club Thursday evening beginning at 8. He will speak on water. The public is invited to attend.

There will be trap and skeet shooting from 6 until 8.

The business meeting will include reports by Jack Sisson and Roy Jensen on the Michigan United Conservation Clubs Convention held in Kalamazoo in June. Movies and lunch will follow the business session.

Illness Fatal To John Rubick

MANISTIQUE — John J. Rubick, 49, of 337 N. Cedar St., died Tuesday at 4:30 p. m. in a Newberry Hospital where he had been seriously ill for the past two weeks.

He was born in Manistique June 5, 1915 and had spent all his life here. During WWII he served as a private with "A" Battery of the 56th Battalion in the 12th Field Artillery. Rubick had been employed by the Michigan Dimension Co. until it ceased operations. He was a member of St. Francis de Sales Church.

Surviving are his father, Louis, of Manistique; three brothers, George and Daniel of Manistique and Frank in New Jersey; three sisters, Mrs. Charles (Catherine) Madison of Flint, Mrs. William (Helen) Brand, Chicago, and Mrs. Robert (Denise) Conde of Kansas City, Mo.

Funeral services will be held at 9 a. m. Friday at St. Francis de Sales Church and liturgical prayers will be recited at Messier - Broulliere Funeral Home at 8 p. m. Thursday.

Friends may call beginning at 2:30 p. m. Thursday. Burial will be in Lakeview Cemetery.

Tons Of Old Mail Found In Garage Of Old Mailman

WATER MILL, N.Y. (AP)—After delivering mail for 30 years, postman Lorin F. Shipper apparently decided to deliver only the important-looking letters and let the rest pile up.

Authorities found two tons of unopened mail, mostly periodicals, circulars and advertising matter, in Shipper's garage and in some ancient automobiles parked on his lawn. It was postmarked 1953 and 1954. About 10 per cent was first-class mail.

Roy Peterson, Southampton postmaster, said there were no complaints of missed mail. "The carrier must have delivered all the mail he thought important and just put the rest away," he said Tuesday.

Shipper, 75, who retired in 1953, told postal officials he couldn't recall how the leftover mail got there.

Peterson said that since the five-year statute of limitations had expired there would be no prosecution.

Major Leagues Resume Races; Two Questions

British Open Lema Shoots One Over Par

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP) —Champion Tony Lema, second choice in the betting although he has never played in Britain before, shot a one-over-par 37 on the front nine today in the first round of the British Open Golf Championship.

Lema had all parts except on the fourth hole. Doug Ford, former Masters and PGA champion, took 36 for the same route over the Old Course at historic St. Andrews. Johnny Bulla of Phoenix, Ariz., the 50-year-old veteran who finished second way back in 1939 and again in 1946, ruined a good round with some bad putting, and finished with a 78.

Play was under really rough conditions. Huge gusts of wind blew in from the North Sea and the greens were dried out and lightning fast.

Veterans such as Ireland's Harry Bradshaw with 41 on the front nine and Dai Rees with 39 were visibly shaken by the weather, which made it hard for the golfers even to stand up.

Bill Johnston, another of the eight Americans in the field, had 38-39-77 and said: "There are some holes out there that are almost impossible to play in this wind."

Jack Nicklaus, the favorite, was among the late starters. He was quoted at 7-2 before play started.

Callison's Ninth Inning Blast Wins For NL Stars

NEW YORK (AP) — It took the National League 31 years to draw even with the American in All-Star warfare Tuesday and in the end it was an ex-American Leaguer who did it.

Wondrous Willie Mays, as usual, starred in the field and on the bases. Billy Williams and Ken Boyer smashed home runs. Jim Bunning and Juan Marichal pitched superbly. But the hero of the ational's 7-4 triumph was Johnny Callison, who was not even voted on the All-Star team.

Callison, a personal pick by Manager Walter Alston, came up in the bottom of the ninth inning with two out, two on and the score tied at 4-4. He walloped Dick Radatz' first pitch into the second deck over Shea Stadium's right field bullpen to square the All-Star series at 17 victories apiece.

"Owed Us Something"

After the 1949 game, the AL led 12-4. The NL has won 13, lost 5 and tied one of the last 19.

The 25-year-old Philadelphia Phillies' outfielder, selected by Alston as the 25th man because of the National League's need for left-handed pinch hitting strength, had entered the game in the fifth inning, hitting for pitcher Jim Bunning.

"He beat us enough," said Alston, managing his fourth winning All-Star squad in six attempts. "I figured he owed us something."

In a recent series at Los Angeles, Callison hit two home runs in two games against Alston's Dodgers.

Next to Radatz, the most charged man on the American League squad was Manager Al Lopez, who has yet to be on a winning All-Star squad. He lost four times as a manager, twice as a player and three times as a coach.

"And to think that before the game I shook hands with Johnny and wished him luck," said Lopez.

It was Lopez, who traded Callison, then a 20-year-old Chicago White Sox hopeful, to the Phillies in the winter of 1959 for third baseman Gene Freese.

Callison said he did not get any special pleasure out of beating his old boss.

Radatz was Tough
"I never faulted Lopez for trading me," he said. "I felt then the deal was good for me because I would have more of an opportunity to play with Philadelphia."

Radatz, Boston's brilliant relief pitcher, was invincible in

Has Beens Keep Highland Golf League Lead

The high-flying Has Beens continued their domination of the Highland Twilight league race as they smashed home with 15 1/2 out of a possible 18 points last evening. The Pei Meiers almost kept pace however, with a 15 point output, to hold on to second place.

Jack Smith led all scorers with a nifty sub-par 34. Other low scores were Mel Manske 36-39, Jim Douglas 36-41, Jerry Harris 37-40, Vial Smith and Dick Nelson 38. Dave Friets and Dave Erickson 39, and Don Wertz 40.

Team standings: Has Beens 67, Pel Meiers 62 1/2, Free Swingers 49 1/2, Sod Busters 47 1/2, Barney's Beavers 47, Hackers 46 1/2, Smitty's Snackers 45, Doug's Dubbers 44 1/2, Rum Dums 43, Divot Diggers 35 1/2.

Girls Softball

Saykly's halted the Nurses' winning streak last night by defeating them 11-9. Saykly's took an early lead with a seven run first inning. Carol Bartosz was the winning pitcher.

Mays Is Hero Without A Hit

NEW YORK (AP) — He didn't get a hit. He missed diving bids for two drives in center field. Yet there he was — the center of attention, shoulder-deep in question-popping newsmen in the victorious National League dressing room after Tuesday's All-Star game.

He was Wondrous Willie Mays — hero to everybody except Willie Mays.

"I'm no hero," said the phenomenal center fielder of the San Francisco Giants, embarrassed and uncomfortable under the glare of the spotlight that has become his destiny.

"Go talk to those other guys, Callison and Marichal. They won the game. Why do you want to talk to a man who didn't get a hit?"

Outfielder John Callison of the Phillies lashed a three-run homer in the ninth that gave the pitching victory to Willie's San Francisco teammate, Juan Marichal, in the Nationals' 7-4 triumph over the American League.

But it was Willie — alert, pirate-bold, rabbit-quick — who electrified the 50,850 spectators at Shea Stadium. First man up in the ninth, he worked tough Dick Radatz of the Red Sox for a walk, stole second and then scampered home with the tying run when Orlando Cepeda dropped a fly into short right field.

Mays stood in front of his locker, a gold St. Christopher medal gleaming against his chest. He answered every question, sometimes many times over, with amazing patience. He signed every autograph. He kidded his old newspaper friends like a prankish sophomore.

Typical was one reply: "I play every game like it's the World Series."

Rocky Hit Double
Until the final pitch Radatz, Baltimore's Brooks Robinson and Kansas City's Rocky Colavito had been the heroes. Robinson, who also contributed a fine fielding play at third base, had put the American Leaguers back in the ball game in the sixth inning. With Philadelphia's Chris Short on the mound, Robinson tripled to right center, driving in two runs to tie the score at 3-3.

Colavito, a last hour replacement for the injured Al Kaline, doubled as a pinch hitter in the seventh, moving Elston Howard to third. Howard scored the lead run on Jim Regis's sacrifice fly. The victory went to San Francisco's Juan Marichal, fifth NL pitcher, who hurled a scoreless ninth.

A crowd of 50,850, largest All-Star gathering since the 1959 game in Los Angeles, saw 37 players perform, 20 wearing National League uniforms.

Francisco teammate, Juan Marichal, in the Nationals' 7-4 triumph over the American League.

But it was Willie — alert, pirate-bold, rabbit-quick — who electrified the 50,850 spectators at Shea Stadium. First man up in the ninth, he worked tough Dick Radatz of the Red Sox for a walk, stole second and then scampered home with the tying run when Orlando Cepeda dropped a fly into short right field.

Mays stood in front of his locker, a gold St. Christopher medal gleaming against his chest. He answered every question, sometimes many times over, with amazing patience. He signed every autograph. He kidded his old newspaper friends like a prankish sophomore.

Typical was one reply: "I play every game like it's the World Series."

MOONLIGHTING—An eager-beaver golfer takes advantage of a lighting system five times as powerful as the combined brilliance of all the lighthouses in New England to play a round of night golf at Lynnfield, Mass.

Alston Figured Callison Owed Him Something

NEW YORK (AP) — "He's beat us enough. I figured he owed me something."

Walt Alston was laughing. His National Leaguers had just whipped the American League 7-4 in Tuesday's All-Star game, tying the lengthy series at 17 victories apiece with one tie.

The player he was talking about was Philadelphia's Johnny Callison, one of Alston's supplementary selections.

Callison, who hit two homers in two games against Alston's Los Angeles Dodgers recently, capped the National League's decisive four-run rally in the last of the ninth with a three-run homer.

"Callison's a great all-around player, that's one of the reasons I picked him," said Alston. "Then, too, I wanted some more left-handed hitting. Besides, the way he's hit against us, he owed me one."

Callison paid the debt with one swing — his first against Boston's Dick "The Monster" Radatz in the ninth.

"I was glad nobody said anything when I went up there," said Callison. "It might have scared me. Radatz is sneaky fast, so I was just looking for the first pitch to come over."

Before Callison came up before the crowd of 50,850, Radatz had struck out five in 2 2/3 innings for a total of 10 in 4 2/3 innings in two consecutive All-Star games.

"I threw him a low fast ball in the seventh inning," explained Radatz. "He hit the only ball to the outfield off me, and I thought I'd try him up high."

Callison's homer also beat his former boss, Al Lopez of the Chicago White Sox who handled the American League team.

For Lopez, it was something special. He has been in seven All-Star games and in the losing dressing room afterward each time.

"For a while I thought I was going to bust my string," Lopez said. "Everything worked out as we wanted it — we had a lead and Radatz to finish up. But I didn't plan on Willie Mays as the leadoff hitter and I didn't want him to walk."

But Willie did, on a 3-2 pitch and proceeded to steal second. Orlando Cepeda then lifted a pop up that fell back of first as Mays streaked for third, slid in, picked himself up, shot home and slid in.

The throw home by first baseman Joe Pepitone hopped on one bounced over the head of catcher Elston Howard and the National League had tied the score 3-3.

Gerties Retain Country Club's Golf Team Lead

Gravelle's Gerties retained their top spot in the team race in the Escanaba Country Club twilight league golf matches Tuesday.

Gravelle's team has 42 1/2 points to 39 for the runnerup Finishers.

Elmer Swanson took individual honors with a 36, followed by Mike Boyle with a 38, Bill Eis Jr., Ed Gravelle, Bill Eis Sr., Bill Perron, Dexter Babcock and Floyd Brunell with 39s and Ed Kuivinen 40.

Standings: Gravelle's Gerties 42 1/2, Finishers 39, Paper Makers 38 1/2, Kidders 37 1/2, Manhattans 35, Ice Boxes 35, Meyer's Bogeysmen 35, Hashers 34 1/2, Hinn's Hookers 34 1/2, Big John's Boomers 33 1/2, Hush Puppies 32, Gump's Gizmos 29 1/2, Pixies 29, Bonnies 29, Has Beens 25 1/2, Slashers 24, 19th Holes 20, Town & Country 17.

Michigan Open Site Settled

BRIGHTON (AP) — The Lakelands Golf and Country Club here will host the 1964 Michigan Open championship.

Lakelands President Frederick H. Davis said Tuesday qualifying rounds for the $6,000, 72-hole tournament are scheduled for July 27 at Lakelands and at the Cascades Hills course in Grand Rapids. The Open will be held Aug. 13-15.

Bero's Fashions 10-3 Upset In Softball League

Tuesday Results
Bero Motors 10, Skinny's Bar 3
Hamm's 4, Hall Ins. 1
Games Tonight
6:45—Hall vs. Mead 1
8:15—Bero's vs. Teamsters

Hamm's took a tighter grasp on first place in the Escanaba Softball League race Tuesday night by defeating Hall Insurance 4-1 in the nighttime at Memorial Field.

The triumph was Hamm's 11th in 12 starts this season and dropped runnerup Mead a game and a half off the pace.

In last night's first game Bero Motors registered a 10-3 upset over Skinny's Bar to tighten the first division standings.

Bob Corriveau armed a four hitter from the Hamm's hill. The league leaders took a 2-0 cushion in the first inning on a walk and hits by Wally Flath and Don Martineau.

Hall came up with one in the third when they got two of their four safeties. Duane Hamelin singled, stole second and came home on John Gardner's single. Hamm's clinched it with singletons in the fifth and seventh innings.

Martineau had two of the six hits given up by Dick Bizeau from the Hall mound.

Bero Motors swatted 11 hits, including three apiece by John Fisher and Ben Yagodzinski, to sideline Skinny's Bar.

They scored a pair of runs in the opening inning with Fisher getting the key blow.

Skinny's went ahead 3-2 in the third, collecting four of their five hits for the game, including a triple by Bill Carlson. Bero's tied it in the fourth on a triple by Yagodzinski and a single by Fisher, then moved out with three in the fifth and four in the sixth. Larry Bero and Tom DeGrand provided the key hits in the two frames.

Dale Bittner threw a five hitter from the Bero mound while Zeke Way toed the slab for Skinny's.

Kiwanis "bread and butter" pitcher, Dave Moberg, pitched his team to a second place tie in the Escanaba Jaycee Little League standings last night by beating VFW 9 to 1. The victory assured Credit Union of at least a tie for the league championship. A victory over the Eagles or VFW on the weekend will give them the 1964 crown.

In fashioning his fifth victory of the season without a loss, Moberg completed the campaign with a 1.19 run-per-game average, second only to Dan Mylander, Credit Union twirler, who leads the league with a .06 average.

Tournament team practice begins tonight at 6:30 with John Chylek in charge of the workout. Bob Thompson and Bob Stacey of the Lions have been added to the roster.

In conjunction with this release, Karl Dickson, league secretary stated: "Boys expecting to participate in summer organized baseball programs should be certain that they have a bonafide birth certificate. Whether it is Little League, Babe Ruth, or American Legion play a birth certificate is as necessary as the ball and glove. Baptismal certificates, hospital certificates etc., are not acceptable as proof of age for any of these organized programs."

Site Changed For All-Star, Cubs' Clash

Site of the game between the Babe Ruth All Stars and the Esby Cubs of the Wau-bung League has been changed from the Babe Ruth field to the Al Ness diamond. The game will be played Thursday, starting at 6 p.m.

School Classes Hold Reunions

The Gladstone High School Class of 1929 will hold their 35th class reunion at the Gladstone Yacht Club Saturday evening. The cocktail hour will begin at 6 p. m., and dinner will be served at 7 p. m.

Class President Richard Foster and his wife, from Casper, Wyo., are planning to attend. He is the son of the Ed Fosters of Gladstone.

CLASS OF 1939
Gladstone High School Class of 1939 will hold their 25th class reunion at the Midway Saturday, July 11, beginning with a happy hour at 5:30 followed by a dinner. A family picnic is being planned for Sunday at VanCleave Park.

One of the class members who will attend the reunion, Paul Carp, is a Methodist minister and will be in charge of the Sunday service at Memorial Methodist Church.

Arrangements for the affair are being made by Mrs. Ruth Crawford Trudeau, Mrs. Gen. Murker Pickard, Elizabeth Nelson, Ray Long, Mrs. Bevet Rivest, Chester Schram and Gene Kee.

Hearing Opens At Cheboygan

CHEYBOYGAN (AP)—An Interstate Commerce Commission hearing on petitions by three transportation firms to abandon rail and ferry service in northern Michigan is set up to run here through July 17.

It opens Wednesday in the West Side Elementary School. Don Deiner, executive secretary of the Committee for Retention of Rail and Ferry Service, said ICC Examiner Hyman J. Blond had space reserved here through July 17 and indicated the hearings later could move to Lansing or Chicago, depending upon witnesses still to be heard.

Lawmakers Help

The CRRFS was organized last January to oppose petitions by Mackinac Transportation Co., the Pennsylvania, New York Central and Detroit & Mackinac railroads to discontinue freight service at the Straits of Mackinac and on 343 miles of northern Lower Michigan track.

The proposed abandonments, committee leaders said, could have drastic economic repercussions for the entire area. The committee enlisted some 35 communities and set up a $7,500 budget to cover legal fees and other costs in its fight.

The committee's work was joined by Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelley on behalf of the Michigan Public Service Commission.

Sen. Philip Hart, D-Mich., spoke out against the abandonment proposals. Rep. Victor Knox, R-Mich., also is among its critics and plans to attend the hearings along with other city, state and national leaders.

Costs Pile Up

They obtained a U.S. District Court injunction ordering the Mackinac Transportation Co. car ferry Chief Wawatom repaired and continued in service at the straits pending an ICC decision in the case.

The petitioning railroads claim declining freight revenues in the areas under petition and claim declining freight revenues in the areas under petition and claim further they will suffer more economic injury if the ferry is lost as their straits link.

The D&M last week withdrew, however, its petitions for service abandonment.

Kelley has sent telegrams to the three other concerns asking them to consider an "amicable solution." Attorney Robert Bierma, PRR chief counsel, says he will meet with Kelley after July 13. It would be five days after the hearings begin here.

Meanwhile, the attorney general's staff and the CRRFS continue preparing a massive dossier for presentation at the hearings.

The work has taken its toll in costs, said Deiner.

He said the committee was set up last January to operate only for 10 weeks and the case now has run more than double that period of time.

GLADSTONE Bass Fishing Is Good Down Deep

Perch fishing has been good in the vicinity of the Escanaba municipal dock, the Conservation Department reports. Good bass fishing in the deep water areas north of the mouth of the Escanaba River is also reported.

A few walleye were taken in the area off Breezy Point last week but few fishermen are fishing these species, in this area, and fishing success is difficult to determine.

Trout fishing on the Escanaba River has been good with fly fishermen having the best luck in the evening hours for brown trout.

In the Gladstone area fishing is generally slow in Little Bay de Noc with perch biting fairly well around Gladstone and northern pike beginning to show up in the vicinity of Masonville and Kipling. A few walleyes are being taken in the evenings at the head of the bay.

Smallmouth bass fishing has declined somewhat in the West Wilsey Bay area and Little Bay de Noc.

Some nice catches of trout are still being noted with the fish beginning to move toward the headwaters and smaller streams.

In the Ensign area very good bass and northern pike success is reported in Martin Bay near St. Vital's Island. Bass are small close to shore but numerous. A few trout are being taken from the Sturgeon and Haymeadow Creek, however, very few fishermen are out.

In the Nahma area trout fishing has been fair on the Sturgeon, Fishdam and 18 Mile rivers. Evenings are best for fly fishing using small brown or gray flies. Warm weather has put the trout in the deep holes and real cool spring areas.

Bass and panfish have been spotty on the inland lakes. Some blue gills taken on Chicago Lake but no great numbers.

Fishing pressure has been light throughout the east half of Delta County.

In the Chatham area light brook trout catches are being made on the Rock River and from the Slatneck Creek 'jungle' on worms. Flies took a few fair sized ones from the AuTrain River downstream from the power house. Worms produced light catches off the mouths of the Jonsson and Slatneck creeks.

Very good rainbow fishing in the spring holes in the AuTrain Basin using night crawlers fishing on the bottom — limit catches made. The mouth of the Slatneck creek also was a good producer fishing the same way.

Fishing the deep bayou waters of the Laughing Whitefish River in from the mouth produced some very good northern fishing with some big fish taken, both trolling and still fishing the deep holes. Daredavils, live bait, and night crawlers all were good baits. The biggest caught was a 16 lb., 38 incher with 20 inch girth. Sixteen Mile Lake was a fair producer by fishing the drop offs with crawlers and live bait. Deer Lake gave up some 4-6 pounders using natural live bait from the lake.

Only a few walleyes were taken from AuTrain Lake — one eight pounder reported. The AuTrain Basin gave up a few largemouth bass, however, success should pick up with warmer weather. Fishing for bluegills is good in the AuTrain Basin, AuTrain Lake, AuTrain Basin and 16 Mile Lake all were good producers of perch.

Output Of 1964 Cars Winds Up

By CHARLES C. CAIN

DETROIT (AP)—Auto assembly lines moved in high gear after a Fourth of July recess as auto makers headed towards a goal of 7.8 million cars by the time the 1964 model run ends this month.

Car output last week hit 158,861 units, an all time high for the Independence Day week. Last week's output compared with 179,000 the preceding week and 126,687 in the year ago week. The former record for the week was set in 1955 when 134,401 cars were built.

Output for the model year has already passed the former mark — 7,340,064 — set last year and with nearly four weeks more of production to go, auto makers are confident they will hit about 7,893,000 cars for the run. They passed the 1963 mark last week.

General Motors apparently will wind up with about 53.6 per cent of the 1964 model production, almost the same total it had last year. Ford's share will run about 26.3 per cent, again almost identical with last year. Chrysler at 6.4 per cent is up from 12.8 per cent a year ago and American Motors apparently will wind up with 5.2 per cent, down from the 6.3 per cent of a year ago.

Truck makers also rolled towards a possible record year as 887,536 have been built, compared with 767,568 in a like span a year ago.

Announce Fish Derby Winners

The Recreation Department sponsored Fish Derby was a great success Tuesday afternoon at the City Park Lagoon and according to Don Pfotenbauer, director, a total of 63 fish were caught in the allotted time.

Awards for the largest fish went to Don Harris, Greg Boden and Brian Cook. In the most fish category, Brian Boden, Pat Cole and Mike Schmidt came out on top. Honors for having caught the smallest fish went to Mike Schmidt, Greg Boden and Dick Pfotenbauer. The youngest fishermen at the lagoon were Bruce Movalson, Paul LaPine and Mark Boden.

The total catch was comprised of sun fish, carp, northern pike, bullheads, perch and bass. Contestants were given candy bars at the close of the event.

Driver Ticketed Following Mishap

Donald McDonald, 37, of Stambaugh, was ticketed by State Police for violation of the basic speed law, too fast for conditions, following a mishap that happened at 10:05 a. m., Tuesday on US 2 in Rapid River at the Tacooch River Bridge.

McDonald was traveling behind Murray Forbes, 33, of Leamington, Ont., when traffic ahead of Forbes stopped. Forbes also came to a stop and McDonald was unable to avoid hitting the Forbes car.

Car Damaged In Collision

Moderate damage was done to a car driven by Eric E. Heikkila, 50, of Forest Park, Ill., when he ran into the rear of a pick-up truck driven by Donald H. Prettyman, 30, of Gladstone.

According to State Police who investigated, Prettyman was driving on US 2 in Ensign Township about 9:05 a. m., Tuesday when he slowed down to pull off the road. Heikkila was driving behind him and was unable to stop because of unusually slippery road conditions at that spot. No tickets were issued.

Briefly Told

All Saints Women's Guild will recite the rosary for Mrs. Rose Baldwin at the Skradski Funeral Home at 3 p. m., Thursday. All members are asked to be present.

The Neighborhood Home Extension Group picnic which was scheduled for July 15 has been postponed until Aug. 12.

Soo Line Veterans Assn. will hold a picnic Thursday at 11 a. m. at the Tumath picnic grounds.

State Police issued a traffic summons to John S. Stropich, 1423 N. 19th St., Escanaba for no operator's license on person.

Margaret Groeneveld, Rte. 1, Rapid River, reported to State Police on Tuesday that while she was driving on US 2 in Ensign at 2 a. m., an unidentified car side-swiped her vehicle. There was minor damage to the Groeneveld car and State Police are investigating.

A reunion meeting of Gladstone High School class of 1954 will be held at 8 p. m., Thursday at the home of Mrs. Gary Nieuwenkamp, 601 Montana Ave.

Your kindness will always be remembered.

The Family of Frances Andezjewski

Olson

We wish to thank our friends, neighbors and relatives for their kindness and sympathy in our bereavement, the death of our dear husband and father, Algot Olson. We are grateful to Rev. Karl Hammar for his comforting words, to those who sent flowers, spiritual bouquets, to the pallbearers, to Archie Wood and the American Legion Post 82, those who offered the use of their cars and all others who helped in any way. Your kindness will never be forgotten.

Turtle Likes Back Scratched

Art Palmer, a farmer near Shakey Lakes in Mid-Menominee County caught a Blandings box turtle in 1955 near the Menominee River and scratched his initials and "55" on the turtle's back.

He took the turtle to a small pond beside the Old Wisconsin Michigan Railroad where he lives near the old settlement of Kells.

In 1957, 1961 and 1964 he found the turtle again and scratched the years in the turtle's back each time.

"He must like having his back scratched," quipped Palmer "because he stays within a mile of where he was released."

Turtles are among the most interesting members of the Up-Penninsula's wildlife. They are reptiles and stand in the scale of evolution between the higher birds and the lower fishes and amphibians. They are the highest of the cold-blooded vertebrates; animals that do not have a central heating system but must get along with a temperature approximating that of the air, earth and waste surrounding them. This lack of control of body temperature forces coldblooded animals to hibernate in the winter and to avoid long exposure to direct rays of the hot sun.

The turtle is an arch conservative so satisfied with its shell that both shell and turtle have remained almost unchanged for about 200 million years. In comparison man is a relative newcomer, according to fossil remains.

Greatest age that any individual turtle has positively been shown to attain is 152 years. The belief that turtles live for hundreds of years is unfounded, say scientists.

James O'Neil Leads In Poll For U. S. Senate

DETROIT (AP) — A Detroit News poll indicated Tuesday that James O'Neil, a member of the State Board of Education, is preferred over two other Republican candidates seeking the Republican nomination for U. S. Senate.

If the primary election were held immediately, the poll showed, O'Neil would take 30 per cent of the party primary vote. Mrs. Elly Peterson of Charlotte, GOP national vice-chairman, would get 24 per cent and Edward Meany of Grand Haven, 11 per cent.

However, the remaining 35 per cent of the Republican voters sampled were undecided about their choice of a candidate to oppose incumbent Democratic Sen. Philip A. Hart this fall.

Major fires cost $318,500,000 in the U. S. during 1963.

ART PALMER, Menominee County farmer, has "scratched the back" of this Blandings box turtle periodically since 1955 in the area near his farm. The photo was taken by Eugene Peterson of Carney who said "They have a reputation for being slow, but this one almost got off the negative before I tripped the shutter." That's why the head is partly missing.

Mental Health Trend Studied

LANSING (AP) — Programs under which mentally ill persons are cared for by facilities located close to their homes are favored by Michigan's new mental health director, Dr. Robert Kimmich.

Dr. Kimmich, who took over his post July 1, said Monday he is aware of a national trend away from the concept of large state hospitals where patients live, and toward locally-oriented facilities where they can be treated as day patients or outpatients.

He also said he sees one of the State Mental Health Department's roles as that of coordinating the functions of various agencies providing services to mentally retarded and mentally ill.

One suggestion he put forth was for a "comprehensive" mental health center where persons could go for a variety of services near their homes.

The new director, will make a tour of some state mental institutions with Gov. George W. Romney later this month. But he said he does not yet know what the state needs in the way of new hospitals, if anything.

"It's clear we need more treatment centers but just what their character should be, and whether they should be state or local, or who will administer them, will require more study."

Kimmich said there may also be a need for replacement or modernization of some of the state's older institutions without increasing their patient bed space.

The new director is a 42-year-old psychiatrist who came to Michigan from a post as director of the mental health program for the City and County of San Francisco.

Although not prepared to discuss the department's needs in detail, Kimmich made it clear that he expects to find a pressing requirement for more staff members to work with patients.

In connection with this, he said, he will ask for development of a broader program of cooperation with general medical practitioners, clergymen, teachers and others in positions to detect potential mental disability in persons.

Another aim, Kimmich said, will be to put emphasis on the "services" to be offered by the department and to prevent the department from becoming more concerned with its own internal functions.
